

The Best Hospitality and Hotel Contractors in Miami

Famous for its beaches, shopping, and nightlife, the city of Miami is a prime worldwide vacation destination. The city was visited by 15.9 million people in 2017, spending $26 billion in the area. These numbers are expected to grow, as more tourists flock to Miami. This flourishing industry means a greater demand for new hotels, resorts, and other accommodations. These new buildings are being designed with layouts that reflect Miami's inviting and engaging environment. There are many options for elite accommodations in the Sunshine State, particularly in Miami, a city that overflows with activities for tourists. Experts say that Floridians and visitors are spoiled for choice when it comes to luxury hotels.

Whether one is thinking of building a classic, opulent hotel or a bohemian-themed, five-star resort, one can have the accommodations of their dreams with the many hotel and hospitality contractors in the city. This curated list of Miami hotel and hospitality contractors were selected based on their years of experience, client lists, and quality of projects and services. These firms are masters in making accommodations that are suited for Miami's unstoppable energy and vibe.

Marker Construction Group

226 SE 12th Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Luxury builder Marker Construction Group offers its clients a quality construction experience due to its well-organized procedures. The firm, headquartered in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, specializes in commercial, multi-family, condominiums, hospitality, health care, and very high-end residential construction. Through thoughtful consideration and a willingness to adapt practices, listening to feedback from both clients and team members, and diligently staying abreast of cutting-edge technology, Marker Construction has created a streamlined workflow that delivers a better construction experience, and a better final product. The firm has formed an impressive network of resources including talented team members and some of South Florida's best architects and sub-contractors, who provide premium materials and products. The firm's years of working with the finest and most experienced craftsman enable them to provide clients with a cost effective and time efficient process, without ever sacrificing quality.

Marker Construction Group is an internationally-recognized building firm based in Florida, specializing in bespoke projects of architectural significance and complex construction means and methods. The company prides itself on working closely with its savvy clientele and discerning group of design professionals. The firm has grown to a staff of over forty, and focuses on building in the South Florida metropolitan regions. Its focus is to deliver uncompromising excellence in construction with a passionate attention to detail and the most seasoned team of building professionals.